

Waltham Watches

About Buying a Watch

Don't buy a watch from a catalogue of a mail order house—you will be disappointed if you do. Go to a jeweler; for his own reputation, if nothing else, he will see that the watch you buy has been put in thorough order, properly oiled, regulated, and is running right. Everyone knows that Waltham Watches are as accurate timekeepers as it is possible to make, and yet there are a hundred accidents that may happen to a perfect watch after it leaves our factory. A good watchmaker knows how to remedy such things, and you may be sure he will do it before he takes your money.

OWNERS OF WATER IN COTTONWOOD

Judge Morse Settles Disputes
That Have Lasted Thirty Years.

APPORTIONS CREEK'S FLOW
ALSO DECIDES WHAT DITCHES
GET SUPPLY FROM FRESHETS.

A complete adjudication of the water rights in Little Cottonwood canyon is contained in a decree filed in the county clerk's office yesterday by Judge C. W. Morse. The suit was filed on July 23, 1902. Disputes have lasted thirty years or more. The Union & East Jordan Irrigation company filed the suit against the Richards Irrigation company and Brady No. 1 and Brady No. 2. The suit was a friendly suit, similar to that of the city in Parley's canyon, still in the hands of Judge Morse, to determine for all time ownership of water.

Evidence was taken in this case from Jan. 14, 1907, until Sept. 24 of the same year. Judge Morse, in the decree, adjudicates only the water rights among the various ditches and irrigation companies. Seven companies acquired primary water rights between the years of 1815 and 1850 to 84.75 second feet of the flow of Little Cottonwood, and the following apportionment is made of the primary rights:

North Desplain	3.36
South Desplain	3.36
Greenwood	1.99
Brady No. 1	.41
Brady No. 2	.41
Blossinger	.68
Van Valkenburg	.25

None of these companies is entitled to any of the surplus water of the creek, according to the decree.

In addition to these seven companies there are 2.64 second feet in the primary water right, distributed as follows:

Tanner	4.18
Richards	2.18
Calhoun and Maxfield	2.18
Union and Jordan	2.18
Walker	2.18

Judge Morse distributes the surplus water of the creek in the following manner, computed in second feet:

Richards	41.1
Union & Jordan	16.38
Calhoun & Maxfield	42.73
Walker	18.38
Tanner	2.88
Blossinger	1.56
Greenwood	3.66
North Desplain	4.75
South Desplain	10.27
Brown	20
Sandy	91
Nicol	6.42
Johnson or Little Nicol	39.59
Union & East Jordan	39.8
Walker	41.10

At times the water in Little Cottonwood creek exceeds the supply necessary for the ditches and at these times the following ditches are entitled to the excess, in second feet:

Steingruber	3.65
Thompson	11.49
Griffith	1
Last Chance	15.74
Lynn	11.78
Hanson	11.78
Baker	.15

O. H. Foulke was appointed commissioner by the court to carry out the terms of the decree and divide the expense of the trial among the many irrigation companies interested in the suit.

USES CORRESPONDENCE
SCHOOL TO WIN SOULS

Mrs. Mary E. Teats, Purity Evangelist, Teaches Religion Through the Mails.

Mrs. Mary E. Teats, national purity evangelist of the W. C. T. U. and the National Purity association, will lecture this afternoon on "Social Purity" at the Central Christian church, corner of Fourth South and Third East street. Tonight she will address the soldiers at Fort Douglas, and Sunday night she will take up the same subject at the Phillips Memorial church. Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock she will speak before the boys' classes at the Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. Teats is the originator of one of the latest ideas for the spreading of social purity. She has started a correspondence school at Chicago, from which is taught the gospel and right living throughout the country. The idea has proven popular, and has received the support of the greatest educators and moralists of the country. She is known as one of the most eloquent speakers of the day.

In her "Social Purity" lectures today and tomorrow such subjects as the financial phase of the liquor question, the science of life in relation to present day social ethics, the new home of the new century, requisites to true parentage and others will be touched upon.

RUSHING CLUB BUILDING

Commercial Club's New Home to Be Ready for Occupancy About
March 1.

Unless for some unanticipated delay the Commercial club will occupy its new home about March 1 of the coming year.

The building contractors are hastening the work as much as possible and state that they expect to be able to turn the building over to the club about January 15. It will require about six weeks for the interior decorations and placing the furniture and fixtures.

The committee having in charge the furnishing of the building, which will involve an expenditure of close to $50,000, has been busy engaged in the work of selecting the furnishings and in deciding upon the matter of the interior decoration. Secretary Joseph E. Faine stated yesterday that in all probability the contracts for the interior fittings and furniture will be awarded within the next week.

WIFE GETS A LIEN ON WAGES OF CONDUCTOR

Judge Morse Grants Decrees for Desertion and Issues Alimony Order.

Three divorces were granted by Judge C. W. Morse yesterday for desertions. Lulu Voight married Gus Voight at Aztec, N. M., Jan. 15, 1908, but he left her the next September. A month later she came to Salt Lake. She received a decree.

Henry Fort admonished his wife for staying out all night in July, 1908, so the next day she left him. They were married in Butte on Jan. 16, 1904. The wife, Alma, took the daughter when she left, and the father was given a divorce and custody of the child.

Catherine Cross said her husband, Oscar, is in Portland, whether he went upon deserting her on Nov. 1, 1904. She said she believed he went away with another woman. Mrs. Cross works for the Paris Millinery company. Judge Morse granted the divorce.

Pete Panjan, an Austrian, got things all mixed up when he tried to tell Judge Morse just when it was that he came back from Butte. Pete married Augusta in Butte about 14 years ago, any, there have two children. He said he was sure his wife went away on July 27, 1908, while he was in Butte on a visit. He told his attorney first that he had returned to Salt Lake the next month or two, and then told Judge Morse it was in November he got back.

Mrs. Pauline Baker, appearing in a tailor-made suit and black turt, told Judge Morse she was penniless, that there was no coal in the house and that she was afraid her husband, A. A. Baker, would draw his wages from the Rio Grande railroad. He is a freight conductor. Judge Morse made an order that if the husband does not come and pay his wife $50 and $40 to her attorney, the $50 to be the regular monthly allowance during the pendency of the suit for divorce. The judgment was made a lien upon Baker's wages for the month.

TAFT DELIVERS ADDRESS

President Attends Installation of Dr. W. D. Shanklin as Head of Wesleyan University.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 12.—President Taft today visited Middletown and Hartford, attending in the former city this morning the installation of Dr. William D. Shanklin as president of Wesleyan university and participating in this city tonight in the dedication of the magnificent new building of the university. President left at 10:40 p. m. for Washington.

As part of the installation exercises at Wesleyan university degrees of doctor of laws were conferred upon President Taft, Vice President Sherman, Senator Root and others. The President, in his address to students and representatives of more than eighty colleges and universities, congratulated the university upon having selected a teacher as its president. He deplored the idea so often advanced that a university needs a business man at its head, "a man who knows the value of a dollar and how to get it," and declared that the limitations of a business man
